If you fail to plan, you plan to fail.

If you always do what you always did. You'll always get what you always got.

If I've got a problem, and I eat over it, I'll have two problems instead of one.

Unless I work the program...the PROGRAM will not work

As the Swan swims on a lake with his head held high It appears that he has it made BUT – his feet are working hard to stay afloat. As in OA – the members who seem to have it made are working hard to keep their abstinence One Day At A Time

LET GOD BE GOD

OA has many slogans that help in our recovery program. "Let go and Let God" is one I have relied on to help me with one of my character defects, commonly known as perfectionism.

Being a compulsive person, I hesitated to try anything unless I could do it perfectly, or at the very least, better than any other living human being. If someone missed my latest example of perfectionism I was sure to point it out. Sometimes I actually failed to reach the impossible or complete the improbable. As the years went by, I attempted less and less. Because I was involved in an unhealthy relationship, I frequently heard about my lack of living skills and ability to cope. Crazy thinking, actions, and reactions were the norm.

Fortunately, my Higher Power steered me to OA, acceptance, and sanity. It somehow makes sense to let God be God. I didn't have to be God anymore. "Let go and let God" is a slogan of freedom for me. By using it, I have given myself permission to be human.

I now experience the joy of success and the knowledge that failure is simply one way that doesn't work. I'm free to try again. This slogan helps me keep my nose out of other people's inventories, so they can experience their own successes and failures.

Thanks, Higher Power, OA, and all my friends in program. (Arizona, USA)

The OA Promise

I put my hand in yours, and together we can do what we could never do alone. No longer is there a sense of hopelessness, no longer must we each depend upon our own unsteady willpower. We are all together now, reaching out our hands for power and strength greater than ours, and as we join hands, we find love and understanding beyond our wildest dreams.
